

APPENDIX

Division III. Judicial Council Legal Forms List

(Adopted by the Judicial Council effective July 1, 1999.)

Under Government Code section 68511, the Judicial Council may “prescribe” certain forms. Use of prescribed forms is mandatory. Under rule 982(a)(2), each mandatory Judicial Council legal form is identified as mandatory by an asterisk (*) on the list of Judicial Council legal forms published in this appendix. Mandatory forms bear the word “adopted” in the lower left corner of the first page.

Optional forms bear the word “approved” in the lower left corner of the first page. Use of an approved (optional) form is not mandatory, but the form must be accepted by all courts in appropriate cases (rule 982(b)).

A local court may not reject any Judicial Council form, optional or mandatory, except for good cause (such as being offered for the wrong purpose, illegibility, etc.). (See rule 982 for more information.)

The forms are available on the California Courts Web site in PDF format at www.courtinfo.ca.gov/forms. The forms may be printed from the Web site and used, but they cannot be completed on screen. Software is available from commercial providers that allow the user to complete the forms electronically.
